RISK STRATEGY OR MITIGATION OF RISK POLICY

Based on the Risk level determined and reviewed from time to time, the company should formulate its Risk Management Strategy. The strategy will broadly entail choosing among the various options for risk mitigation for each identified risk. The risk mitigation can be planned using the following key strategies:

In order to achieve the effective Risk mitigation strategy, following framework shall be used:

- a. Risk Avoidance: By not performing an activity that could carry risk. Avoidance may seem the answer to all risks, but avoiding risks also means losing out on the potential gain that accepting (retaining) the risk may have allowed.
- b. Risk Transfer: Mitigation by having another party to accept the risk, either partial or total, typically by contract or by hedging.
- c. Risk Reduction: Employing methods/solutions that reduce the severity of the loss.
- d. Risk Retention: Accepting the loss when it occurs. Risk retention is a viable strategy for small risks where the cost of insuring against the risk would be greater over time than the total losses sustained. All risks that are not avoided or transferred are retained by default.

This includes risks that are so large or catastrophic that they either cannot be insured against or the premiums would be infeasible.
